GREENVILLE
Death of Mrs. Catherine Donnelly—Daniel F. Connor Passes Away—Notes.
(Contributed.)

Surrounded by the members of her family, from whom she received every possible care and attention, and fortified by the sacraments and rites of the church which she loved so well, the soul of Mrs. Catherine Donnelly passed into the hands of its Creator at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, death which was a painless and happy one, resulting from cancer in the stomach, after several weeks' illness.
The deceased, whose maiden name was Catherine Giblin, was born in County Sligo, Ireland, March 17, 1844, and at the age of 3 the family moved to Manchester, Eng. In company with her sister, Margaret, she came to this country at the age of 25 and landed in East Boston, Mass. Embarkation from her native land in those days was by means of a sailing vessel, sixteen days being required to make the trip. After a few weeks spent at East Boston, she deceased settled in Versailles and Greenville and for the past forty years has been an honored communicant in St. Mary's parish, in which church she was married in 1870 to the late Joseph P. Donnelly, by the beloved Rev. Daniel Mullen.
Previous to her marriage the deceased was employed as a weaver in the Shuckett mills and at the death of her husband, which occurred January 19, 1888, she returned to the same occupation, to school and rear her four children. Her chief delight was centered in her children and home and she was ever found ready to aid those in distress and need. Her death, coming at an age when the fruits of a hard, laborious life might be thoroughly enjoyed, leaves a lasting feeling of profound sorrow in a once happy home.
Four sons—John W., Joseph A., Henry L., and James F. Donnelly—are left to mourn the loss of a good and devoted mother. There survive also three daughters, Mrs. Margaret Moore of East Boston, Mass., Miss Honora Giblin and Mrs. Ann O'Gara of Manchester, Eng.; three nephews, Francis and James Moore of East Boston, Mass., William O'Gara of Manchester, Eng., and three nieces, Mrs. Mary G. Landrian and Mrs. James Rice of East Boston, Mass., and Mrs. Patrick Donohue of Paterson, Death of Daniel F. Connor.

The death of Daniel Francis Connor occurred at his home, 38 Elm street, Wednesday night at 9:45 o'clock, after being confined to his bed for a period of about ten days. Death was due to kidney trouble. Mr. Connor was 58 years old and had been in ill health for some time. His death came as a sad surprise to a host of friends in this city.
The deceased was born in Norwich, February 20, 1871, the son of Ellen Driscoll and Jeremiah Connor. After attending the public schools he studied for some time in Manhattan college, New York city.
When his brother, Thomas J. Connor, died, nineteen years ago, he took himself in the grocery store of D. H.
Driscoll & Co. on North Main street, and had since remained with that firm.
He was united in marriage with Miss Mary A. Coughlin July 28, 1901, in St. Mary's church by the Rev. James J. Smith. His wife survives, together with his father, one brother, Joseph H.
Connor, and two sisters, Miss Sarah Connor and Mrs. Cornelius Driscoll of Cling street.
Mr. Connor was a young man of most pleasing personality and won many friends by his courtesy and uprightness.
He was loyal to his home, an affectionate brother, a dutiful son, and a loving husband. His loss will be mourned by a wide circle of friends in his native place.
Hamilton-Bowker Wedding June 28.
John Bowker of Central avenue has announced the coming wedding of his daughter, Miss Florence Bowker, and William James Hamilton, which taken place at St. Andrew's church on Tuesday, June 28, at 12 o'clock.
Local Mention.
John Edwards was a visitor in Westerly Thursday.
Miss Gertrude Bottomly has returned to Hartford after visiting relatives in town.
Charles Raynes of Fourteenth street is improving after an illness with throat trouble.
Thure Rydholm who has been visiting at his home on Prospect street, has returned to Rockville.
George Brooks of the East Side states that he has not been visiting his daughter near Providence.

ITALIANS WHO WERE "MUGGED." Discharged by Magistrate, They Complain of Police Photographing.
New York, June 3.—Two detectives of the Brooklyn squad arrested last night Tony Toddi and Joseph Rosetti, Italians, at Washington and Sands streets, as suspicious characters. The men were taken before Magistrate Dooley this morning and were discharged.
Then they complained that they had been photographed and measured before being tried, but this was emphatically denied by Ward, who said that if they had they would go to Deputy Wood and obtain the photographs and plates.
That he has not been visiting his
daughter near Providence.
Mrs. S. A. Thompson was the guest of friends in Poquetanuck Thursday.
William Kendall of Dover, N. H., was the guest of his family on North Main street the first of the week.
Miss Belle Green has returned to Wallingford after spending a few days as the guest of relatives in town.
Miss Mabel Christman and Mrs.
Anderson of Fourth street are spending a week with relatives in New York.
Charles Potter, Jr., of Hartford arrived Wednesday to spend the summer with his grandmother, Mrs. Joseph Bottomly, of North Main street.

Schooner Margaret's Whaling Trip Only One of Last Crew Goes this Time—Cleared from New London on Thursday.

Dr. G. R. Harris was in New London on Thursday arranging the details for the sailing of the schooner Margaret for a three month whaling trip. The schooner, which had been fitted out here and repaired at New London, cleared from the custom house there on Thursday afternoon, the destination being given in the official documents as the Atlantic ocean. She will be headed for the whaling grounds off Cape Hatteras, with the view to finding sperm whales, and should they not be discovered the trip southward will probably be continued.
The Margaret is commanded by Capt. John T. Coakley of New Bedford. On the last trip, from which she arrived on April 1, she was in command of Capt. James D. Buddington of Groton. She returned from the South Atlantic, where her crew killed sea elephants and took their oil. On her trip homeward the Margaret met many sperm whales, and the abundant of these caused the owners to decide against a trip to Greenland which Captain Buddington was in favor of making.
Captain Coakley has shipped many New Bedford men in his crew this

NEW BUILDING WILL BE HUSTLED ALONG.
Silk Company Can Move Here by July 1st and Be Running by August.

Following the board of trade meeting Wednesday night Mr. Neuburger expressed much satisfaction at the action of the board of trade, and said he should make every endeavor to have his business brought here as soon as possible. The work on the building, which is well along, is to be hustled so that he has been encouraged to think he can get into the new building by the first of next month he would be engaged in moving here, any way.
He left here early Thursday morning for Westerly to arrange for the change. A number of towns had been in communication with him, besides Norwich. The firm liked particularly two offers from Pennsylvania and one from New Hampshire. When Norwich was visited the kind of a building that he was looking for was found.
The structure at Norwich will enable the Westerly Silk mill to have a building of their own and to start they expect they will. Mr. Neubur-ger expects to have the mill in Westerly running full by the first of August. He feels much relieved, now that he has found a place and will be able to occupy it long before he is obliged to give up the mill in Westerly.

GRAND OFFICER INSTALLED AT FRANKLIN CHAPTER.
Class of Three Candidates Worked, Followed by Banquet—Visitation from Westerly and New London.

At the regular convocation of Franklin chapter, No. 4, R. A. M., at Na-son's Temple, at Thursday evening there was an unusual feature, inasmuch as Past Grand High Priest George A. Kies of this city installed George R. Morris of New London, grand high of the grand chapter.
There was a visitation of about 35 from Palmer chapter of Westerly and about 10 from New London, while visitors were also present from Mystic, Woodstock, Concord, N. H., and Worcester, Mass. High Priest Sampson Spry of Palmer chapter with Past High Priests Thomas McKenzie and A. N.
Nash were present, as was High Priest Henry R. Tidwell and Past High Priest Morris Union chapter of New London. A class of three candidates was worked and about 200 were present.

UNIFORMS AND CARTRIDGES
Both Companies Are Now Equipped—On Thursday evening there was a short assembly of the Third company, C. A. C., at the armory. The drill session having ended, there was no drill, although a large number of men gathered.
The fatigue uniforms for the Third company were received sometime ago, but on Thursday those for the Fifth company arrived, and a quantity of cartridges for outdoor practice, and it is probable a number of the men will be at the range Saturday.
First Lieut. Gordon Robinson, who has been stationed at Fort Terry, Plum Island, for some time, left Wednesday for San Francisco, where he has been stationed at the Presidio. During his stay in the New London artillery district Lieut. Robinson made many friends, and his going is regretted. He was quartermaster at Fort Terry and is succeeded by Lieut. A. G. Stuart.
Lieut. George L. Wertenbaker, quartermaster of Fort Trumbull, who has been at the artillery school, Fort Monroe, Va., will with Mrs. Werten-baker leave New London about the middle of July.
Brigadier General George M. Cole, the adjutant general, has published for the information of the C. N. G. the recent decision of the chief of the division of military affairs regarding the scoring of rifle practice. The decision is that after a man has fired his first two sighting shots, the record firing is commenced, and each group of five consecutive shots must be counted. It is not allowable to select any group of five shots in a continuous line of shots and call such selected group a string.
This decision was published because it had reached the ears of the adjutant general that the custom prevailed in this state of selecting any five consecutive shots. There is not thought to have been any effort to pass illegal scores for legally made scores, but the rules were not exactly understood by some scorers.

Boat for Camp Browning.
A well built rowboat for use at Camp Browning the coming summer has just been completed at the Y. M.
C. A., and will be a handy bit of equipment for the boys' camp at Groton Long Point, E. July. Varsity Wiley, while office assistant this spring, did most of the carpenter work on the boat, assisted by Howard Lillie, janitor of the Y. M. C. A. It is 15 feet over all in length, provided with stern seat and two seats in the waist, and rowlocks for two pair of oars.
The two boat builders, who did most of their work in the bowling alley, have a creditable piece of work to show for their labors.

TAFTVILLE
Local Notes—Baseball Players Meet With Accidents.
John Grieshaber of South B street returned Wednesday from a trip to Bridgeport and New York.
William Wohlleben was the guest of friends in Providence Memorial day and had a very enjoyable time.
Mrs. William Brerly of North A street was the guest of relatives in Fall River the first of the week.
Miss Lillian and Miss Alice Kyle of South A street have returned after meeting relatives in North Attleboro, Mass.
Wilfrid Carter of Granby, P. Q., arrived this week to spend a month with his brother-in-law, Euclide Larose of South A street.
Mrs. Alexander Hanna has returned to her home in Clinton, Mass., after visiting her aunt, Mrs. Archibald Torrance of Providence street.
Three followers of baseball in Taft-ville have met with accidents this week. Samuel March was hit with a bat Tuesday night and suffered a cut over his left eye, which necessitated three stitches. On the same night Richard Kyle wrenched his hip so badly that he will be kept from work for a few days. John Frechette was the third and he hurt his hand by falling over a rock. All are gradually improving.

HAUGHTON HOMESTEAD BURNED
Fire Near Fitchville Early Thursday Morning Destroyed Old Property—Cause Not Known.

At 2 o'clock Thursday morning the old Haughton homestead on the Colchester turnpike above Fitchville was destroyed by fire which caught in an unoccupied part of the building on the outside. It is believed John Miller, who lives next door, discovered the fire and notified the occupants, George Penney and family. They had a chance to get out most of their furniture by the assistance from neighbors in Yan-tic. The house, which was of two stories, had been recently purchased by Palmer Brothers and was being put in good condition, having been out of repair for a number of years. It was to have been made into a two-tenement house, carpenters and plumbers having been at work there. Two or three small buildings near by were burned. The total loss is placed at about $2,500.
The house had belonged to the Haughton family for about 100 years, Welles Haughton, nephew of Asa Fitch, who founded Fitchville, having resided there until his death in 1899. It was a roomy, old-fashioned house, built by his grandfather.

FUNERALS.
George W. Nash.
At 1:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon Rev. Jerome Greer, pastor of the Bear Hill M. E. church, conducted a prayer service over the remains of George W.
Nash at the home of his son-in-law, Harry W. Hill, No. 41 Division street, and at the Buckingham Memorial at 2:30 conducted the public service, at which there was a large attendance of relatives and friends. There were handsome floral forms and about the casket was an American flag. The active bearers were E. E. Nash, Ernest Nash, Frank Olds and Harry W. Hill, while the pallbearers were James Harvey, Selon Moxley, Henry Hovey and Albert A. Walker. Burial was in Yan-tic cemetery, where the officers of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., conducted the committal service. Funeral Director Gager was in charge of the arrangements.

Thrown from Horse.
While riding horseback Wednesday, Mrs. Grosvener Ely was thrown, as the horse suddenly turned into Broad street near Washington of its own accord.
The accident was not anticipated and she was thrown to the ground, but luckily escaped with a few bruises.
